

WHY OUR FRANCHISE LEADS THE PACK

→ Industry Leading Equipment

We've refined our systems and technologies to near perfection. From cryosaunas and local cryo machines, to robes and protective clothing, we provide access to best-in-class equipment and branding essentials, delivering a turnkey operation to each franchisee.

→ Advanced Training & Support

Training is vital to delivering safe, effective and efficient cryotherapy to clients. Frozen University is our comprehensive training program that provides initial onsite training and ongoing support through continuing education, online resources and access to our experienced support team.

→ Expert Marketing

Our comprehensive marketing calendar helps drive business with initiatives designed to promote Orange Cryo as a whole, while strengthening the brand in the market place. The shared monthly marketing calendar provides social media, promotional and creative content to support your efforts in raising the profile of your location and actively engaging with customers in your local community.

→ Elite Operations

Our dedicated support team provides the needed organizational, administrative and operational guidance to run a successful cryotherapy business.

We are committed to ensuring that each location operates at the same level of excellence and organization as ours.

Orange Cryo WELLNESS

BECOME A FRANCHISE OWNER

Our mission is to assist our clients in gaining access to one of the most revolutionary health promoting technologies available today. In each of our franchise and affiliate wellness centers, knowledgeable and friendly team members guide clients every step of the way.

CUSTOMER ADOPTION

Customers see cryotherapy services as a routine, ongoing and necessary wellness treatment. Thus, creating an exponential customer base with high return rates.

Cryotherapy is recognized as one of the fastest growing segments within in the health and wellness industry, valued at 2.5 billion in 2015 and is forecasted to reach 5.6 billion by 2024. With benefits including recovery, anti-aging and overall wellness, it is easy to see why the demand for cryotherapy is growing exponentially.
